												Combine with MGMT 5154 01. Who pays the healthcare bills in the United States and why and how? You will learn the critical importance and functions of payer organizations in the healthcare system, particularly in identifying and reducing individual, institutional, and professional exposure to unexpected financial loss or risk through health insurance. We'll study insurance as a healthcare benefit to patients, as prime source of revenue to providers and healthcare organizations, and as financial protection to individuals and their families, as well as healthcare providers facing risks and legal liabilities associated with negligence and malpractice. Risk and insurance management is among the fastest growing specialties in healthcare management, particularly in terms of job demand, market growth, and academic and research opportunities.
