

Requirements for the LAS Minor in Central American Studies (15 units)

I. Required Courses (6 units)

If the courses below are not offered, please work with your LAS advisor to substitute equivalent courses.

Course Number	Course Name	Unit	Semester	Grade
HIST 6460	History of Central America and the Caribbean	3
LAS/CLS 3700 or LAS/CLS 4080	Introduction to Central America or The Central American Experience in the US	3

II. Electives (9 units)

Select 3 courses from the list below. Other relevant courses may be used as electives with advisor approval.

Course Number	Course Name	Units	Semester	Grade

A. Electives in Central American Studies

- ANTH 4080 - Peoples of Mesoamerica
- ANTH 4290 - Maya Civilization
- ART 4470 - The Art of Mesoamerica and the Southwest
- CLS 3200 - Pre-Columbian Narratives in Latin American Literature
- CLS 3320 - Indigenous, Central American, and Mexican Migrants in Transnational Networks
- CLS 3400 - Chicana/Latina/Indigenous Refusal, Resistance, & Praxis
- CLS 3950 - Community Service in Chicano Studies (must be with an organization serving Central American populations in Southern California)
- CLS/AIIS 4000 - Indigenous Peoples of Mexico & Central America: Land, History, Culture
- CLS 4250 - Chicanas & Latinas: Social Movements in the Americas
- CLS/LAS 4280/RELS 4230 - Migration, Identity, and Religion
- CLS 4400 - Joteria Expressions in Las Americas
- CLS/LAS 4450 - Indigenous Experiences in Contemporary Mexico and Latin America
- ECON 4650 - Current Issues in Latin American Economies
- HIST 4690 - Indigenous Peoples of the Americas
- LAS 3950 - Community Service in Latin American Studies (must be with an organization serving Central American populations in Southern California)
- LAS 4700 - Labor and Social Movements in the Americas
- LAS/WGSS 4820 - Latin American Women's Movements
- PAS 4560 - Politics of the Caribbean and Central America
- SPAN 4310 - Spanish-American Testimony