Los Angeles Urban Teacher Residency \(LAUTR\), an innovative teacher credential, training, and master's degree program based at CSULA, is still accepting applications for the upcoming 2016-17 cohort that begins this June!

Los Angeles Urban Teacher Residency is an 18 to 24 month intensive credential and master's degree program founded on principles of social justice. The Cal State University Los Angeles based program provides aspiring urban teachers with rigorous, practical coursework, and training that includes co-teaching with a mentor teacher for an entire school year in high-need schools in Los Angeles.

Two credential pathways for 2016-17 Cohort:

1. Education Specialist Credential with a STEM Specialization for secondary level
2. Single-Subject Credential in Math or Science (Biology, Chemistry, & Physics) for secondary level

Program features:

- $25,000 living stipend with additional scholarship/grant opportunities
- A year-long apprenticeship co-teaching with a mentor teacher
- Core group of professors committed to the residents' success
- Highly supported cohort communities
- STEM degree NOT necessary

Interested individuals, who will have graduated with a bachelor's degree by Spring 2016, should attend the 17- Minute Online Information Session immediately to begin the application process. See important testing information here. Application deadline: April 4, 2016
